in Salt Lake City's Liberty Park

(enter from 900 South at 600 East)

'Echoes of Christmas' is a 40-minute outdoor musical and theatrical event with live animals starting every 5 minutes, presented entirely by volunteers. Guests are guided by shepherds bearing torches as they rotate between scenes involving a solitary shepherd boy; shepherds watching their flock; a high priest at the temple; wise men from the East; an inn keeper and his wife; Mary and Joseph; and a host of angels. The show is suitable for families, youth groups, civic groups, church groups, and other interested persons.
