

Echoes of Christmas

A Musical Gift, Reflecting on the Savior's Birth

Featuring Live Nativity and Original Music

*December 15 - 17 & 19 - 21, 2011
7 to 9 PM Each Evening, Weather Permitting in Salt Lake City's Liberty Park (enter from 900 South at 600 East)*

"Echoes of Christmas" is a 40-minute outdoor musical and theatrical event with live animals starting every 5 minutes, presented entirely by volunteers. Guests are guided by shepherds bearing torches as they rotate between scenes involving a solitary shepherd boy, shepherds watching their flock; a high priest at the temple; wise men from the East; an inn keeper and his wife; Mary and Joseph; and a host of angels. The show is suitable for families, youth groups, civic groups, church groups, and others.
